Vic,

In reviewing the file I find:

Ronda K Macaw, President of Devil Creek Ranch filed a letter of concern but did not formally file a protest. Devil Creek's issues of concern (permission to use existing pipeline needs to be clarified) may need to be addressed by the applicant. Currently they are not a party to the contested case.

Kathy Wells filed a formal protest for Wells Livestock, Inc but later withdrew the protest. They are not currently a party to the contested case. I'm not sure if Walter Wells is associated with Wells Livestock, Inc but I find no protest in the name of Walter Wells.

It appears from the file that currently only J R Simplot Self-Declaration of Revocable Trust is a protestant.

Allen,

I will take a look at Jim's schedule and cross out any of his available dates that do not work for Simplot. Question: Was Walter Wells also a Protestant? I recall him filing something, but Mr. Wells passed away since his filing. His estate was split in two directions. Do they need to be notified? Also, should Devil Creek be involved with the Pre-Hearing conference? (I think Devil Creek filed something too).
