Cathy,

If you now have sole ownership, then I assume that there has been a formal change in the title deed and/or ownership of the land as recorded by the county. If so, this situation would require you to submit a Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership with IDWR in order to officially change the ownership of the right. You can access the form and instructions from our web site using the following link:

http://www.idwr.idaho.gov/RulesStatutesForms/WaterRights/PDFs/NOTICE_OF_CHANGE_OF_WATER_RIGHT_OWNERSHIP.pdf

You would need to include with the form a copy of the deed or perhaps a copy of the court decree that awarded the land to you as a result of the divorce settlement. Unfortunately, there is a $25.00 fee for changing the ownership. In the case of a death, we can remove a spouse from the record of ownership, not so however in the case of divorce.

Tim, his address is incorrect. Would you please change the address to P.O. Box 140355, Garden City, ID 83714

My husband and I have divorced over 5 years ago and I now have sole ownership of the property with water rights as issued in the divorce decree.

Thanks for the information.

Attached is a summary report of your water right, which provides you as the current owner and associated address. The owner and address info is:

WATER RIGHT NUMBER: 65-4009

*Updated per request from T.L. To do so, /
P.R. 12/3/10*

Chris,

Can you please update an address for water right no. 65-4009 as shown in the e-mail string below. The names should remain the same for now but please update the address for both owners to P.O. Box 140355, Garden City, ID 83714

Thanks, Tim

Yes, we can change your address in the interim. So to confirm your new address is: P.O. Box 140355, Garden City, ID 83714

Is this right? Your prior e-mail with this address said "his" address and I think you may have meant to type "this" address is incorrect"

Tim,

Can we just change the mailing address to ensure I receive the proper notices for now and I will get a copy of the quitclaim deed and mail in the change form?
