Kevin,

Attached is a water master comment form for the Bray Lake transfer I talked to you about this morning. The transfer changes the place of use of water right 37-857, from property owned by Bray Valley Ranch to property owned by Gary and Helen De Moss. The ownership of the right will also change as part of the transfer. There will be no changes to the point of diversion or anything relating to Dry Creek. I don't see any impacts to you or WD37 other than ownership of the right.

The transfer is an "easy" one for us that we won't even advertise, but we still need your comments. If you could fill out and sign the attached form and e-mail it back to me, that would be great. The other rights, beside 37-857, listed on the form are the rest of the De Moss irrigation rights. They will be treated as "associated rights" in the transfer so we can put a condition on all of the De Moss irrigation rights, now including 37-857, tying them all together.

If you have any questions, feel free to give me a call.

Thanks,

Corey
