Mr. Foster is bringing in warranty deeds for the property.. Does he also need something from the current renter stating that he is giving up the rental agreement? Maybe a notarized statement?

Thanks,

So Mr. Foster wants to terminate both the rental and the lease agreements. He should be able to do that, but we will need some proof that he owns the land under the rental and is legally able to terminate the rental.

Subject: RE: Leased Water Rights

Originally, Mr. Foster sold the property without the water rights. The individual who purchased the property, was the renter. Mr. Foster then purchased the property back from the individual renting the water. So, Mr. Foster wants to pull the water out of the bank instead of renting his own water from the water bank... He wants to complete a transfer to combine the place of use for all the rights, overlapping six circles. The place of use would be located at T04N35E Sec 22 and Sec 23 the NW and NE quarters. I am not sure if this is the same place of use that you have for the rental agreement, but my understanding is that it should be.

Would Mr. Foster be able to pull the water out of the bank?

Hi Kerrie,

Yes, they have all been rented. This is odd. The owner of the water rights and the person renting the water rights filed the applications together, meaning they had an agreement between themselves before approaching the Bank. I wonder if they've had a falling out. Or I guess the transfer could be to complete what they were trying to do in the Water Supply Bank. What do you think?

Dear Lessor:

The Department of Water Resources ("Department") has completed its review of your application to lease the above-mentioned water right numbers to the Water Supply Bank ("Bank"). The rights will automatically be released from the bank on December 31, 2014, unless the rights are released earlier by the Board, or upon request by the lessor. To change the term of the lease or to release the rights from the Bank, you must submit a request in writing to the Department prior to the release date.

Please review the conditions of acceptance listed on the Lease Acceptance and contact me if you have any questions at (208) 287-4907.
