ARTICLE V

Purpose

A. The corporation is organized to own, operate and maintain an educational institution dedicated to developing the intellectual stimulation, individual growth and independent thinking of its students.

B. The corporation is organized exclusively for educational purposes as set forth in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE VI

Powers

The corporation shall have all of the powers granted nonprofit corporations under the laws of the State of Idaho. However, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the corporation shall exercise only such powers as are in furtherance of the tax exempt purposes of organizations set forth in Section 501(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code, as amended, as such provisions are presently in force and effect, or as they may be amended from time to time.

ARTICLE VII

No Members

The corporation shall not have any members, pursuant to Idaho Code § 30-3-36.

ARTICLE VIII

Board of Trustees

The affairs of the corporation shall be managed by its Board of Trustees. The number of regular voting Trustees shall be not less than ten (10) nor more than thirty (30). The Board of Trustees shall determine at its annual meeting the number of Trustees to serve for the upcoming year. A change in the number of Trustees may be made by amending the Bylaws of the corporation. The Trustees shall be elected by the existing Trustees of the corporation in the manner and for the term provided in the Bylaws of the corporation. In addition to the regular voting Trustees, the Board of Trustees may elect emeritus, ex-officers, alumni and/or student Trustees to serve on terms and conditions to be prescribed by the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE IX

Distributions and Activities

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its Board of Trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article V hereof.

No part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The corporation shall distribute its income for each tax year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code. Further, the corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, nor retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, nor make any taxable expenditures as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE X

Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE XI

Bylaws

Provision for the regulation of the internal affairs of the corporation shall be set forth in the Bylaws.

DATED the 12th day MAY of , 2000.

Chairman of the Board of Trustees
BARBARA J WALLACE
