RE: Water Right No. 29-11345

Joany,

Enclosed is the Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership that we discussed over the phone today. In looking over the divorce file, I did not find a copy of my ex-wife's quit claim from the property containing the water right. Rather than make another trip to the county courthouse to search for same I went ahead and enclosed a copy of the complete divorce decree (enclosed) which I had immediately at hand.

I am no lawyer, but it looks like the verbiage for her release of her property rights appears, at least, on page # 1 of the Marital Dissolution Agreement (II. Property and Debt, 1. Community Property, A. Community Real Property, 1.). That passage required that I refinance the property and remove her name in the process within 90 days, which I did. Therefore, I also enclosed a copy of that Deed of Trust which shows my name, my brother-in-law's (Richard A. Sumin) and sister's (Evelyn Kay Sumin) as the new owners after refinance. I regret transmitting so much paper, but, hopefully, this will be adequate to prove the change of ownership, i.e. removal of my wife's name from the deed as prescribed in the Decree of Divorce.

I have also included a check to IDWR for $25.00 as per your instructions.

Finally, I enclosed a copy of the existing water right, 29-11345, for reference and convenience.

Thanks for your help and please contact me if you have further questions.

Sincerely,

Michael N. Fisher
