Dear Ms. Bridge-Clark:

We sent to you, with a letter dated July 6, 2006, seven applications to lease various portions of water rights to the Water Supply Bank on behalf of some people named Allen. The objective of the client was to keep these rights in the bank without risking forfeiture until he came up with some other ideas for the use of the rights. To date, our office has never received any formal communication or acknowledgment that you even received our letter or the applications. In January, I spoke with a clerk there who assured me that our letter and the applications had been received, but that you had just been too busy to do anything about them. Would it not be possible to at least drop us a short note formally acknowledging receipt of the applications and predicting a reasonable time within which we might expect them to be processed? We wonder whether the client risks forfeiture of the water rights under these circumstances. We will appreciate hearing from you at your earliest convenience.

Yours very truly,

Kent W. Foster
