Roxanne,

Per our telephone conversation this morning, would you please provide the proposed water bearing zone information for the Church of God of Prophecy permit application referenced above? I apologize for neglecting to ask for this information in my initial correspondence requesting additional information for this application. Per Administrative Memorandum Amended Application Processing No. 59, the water bearing zone will be a remark in the advertisement for this application, but will not be a condition of approval. Item No. 5 of this memo describes the process regarding water bearing zone information. I've attached a copy of the memo for your reference. Please feel free to call or reply to this email if you have any more questions on this. I look forward to your reply.

Thanks,
Angie
