Dear Sir or Madam,

I am submitting a notice of change but think I need to explain the sequence of events that occurred. Back in Feb 2007, the investment company DBSI put together a deal to sell DBSI Cobra 370 LLC, which was a subsidiary of theirs, to a group of investors, of which I'm one, and the new entities name was DBSI Snake River Valley LLC. You may have heard that DBSI perpetuated a large amount of fraud on investors and is now in chapter 11 bankruptcy. During their time of managing the properties they sold to investors they were very sloppy in their administrative duties. When the property was conveyed from DBSI Cobra 370 LLC to DBSI Snake River Valley 370 LLC, even though the sale was completed they failed to make the necessary administrative changes for the name change.

What I'm trying to do now is to get the name corrected to where it should have been. We have now changed the entity to be Snake River Valley II LLC, removing the reference to DBSI as they are no longer involved in this property. When they were involved it was only as the manager and they had no ownership.

So after that long story the current owners name is Snake River Valley II, LLC and I am the unpaid manager of this property and also an investor in it.

If you have any questions on this please don't hesitate to call me.
