RE: Contested Application for Transfer #75704—Junayo Ranch

Dear Protestants:

Under the Department Rules of Procedure, Rule 510 (IDAPA 37.01.01.510) a pre-hearing conference may convene for a contested case as described above. The purpose of a pre-hearing conference may include:

- formulating and simplification of the issues
- obtaining concessions of fact, identification of documents
- discussion or making of settlement offers
- scheduling hearings and discovery
- arranging for the exchange of exhibits or prepared testimony

The Applicant (Junayo Ranch) has requested the contested case move directly to a hearing. However, a prehearing conference can be considered by the Department upon request. If you desire that a prehearing conference be scheduled by the Department, please submit a written request to this office by March 4, 2011. If a conference request is received, our office will send out availability calendars to determine a common date for all parties. A hearing notice will follow.

Should you have questions, please contact me at the Western Regional Office, phone 334-2190.

Sincerely,

John Westra, Manager
