Mr. Sterling,

This message is intended to serve two purposes 1) to provide you with my contact information and 2) to confirm for you that your letter, (dated 3/12/2010), which requested an extension of time to provide required information, has arrived in my cubicle.

Your letter was silent about the amount of additional time you would need. But I must put some boundaries on the time that this application stays open. It has been in the IDWR processing queue for a lengthy period and but information deficiencies mean that it cannot be processed as it is.

Before Monday March 22, 2010, please provide me your estimate of the additional time needed. Thank you.

Here is my contact information:
