

Aug. 17, 2011

To whom it may concern,

I realize this is a little late- but there has been numerous issues with finding this water right (neighbors, etc.) And very few people willing to help - I realize how busy your office must get and apologize for any added inconvenience of this paper work being late. If there is a late fee, please give me a call and I will get you a check as soon as possible.