LAST WILL AND TESTAMENTOFSANDRA J. BENSON

INTRODUCTION: I, SANDRA J. BENSON, do hereby state that I am now a resident of Owyhee, County and do hereby make, publish and declare this instrument to be my last Will and Testament.

FIRST: Family. I am not now married. I have three children now living, namely: BRUCE A. BENSON, SCOTT J. BENSON and JEFFREY R. BENSON. I have no deceased children. Each reference in this Will to "my child" or "child of mine" or "my children" or "children of mine" is a reference to one or all, as the case may be, of my children named in this paragraph. Each reference in this Will to "issue" means lineal descendants of all degrees and includes adopted persons.

SECOND: Funeral and burial. I direct that my funeral services be conducted according to the wishes of my immediately family and that my body be cremated and that my ashes be disposed of suitable to the wishes of my immediate family.

THIRD: Personal representative. The personal representatives of this Will shall be the nominees hereinafter set forth.

First, I nominate my children to serve as joint personal representatives of this Will and if one or more of them shall fail to qualify or cease to act as such joint personal representative or personal representatives then no vacancy or vacancies shall be deemed to exist and I nominate the others or the other as such joint personal representatives or as the sole personal representative, as the case may be.

No bond shall be required of any personal representative herein nominated.

FOURTH: Payment of expenses and debts: I direct my personal representative to pay from the residue of my estate as soon as practicable after my death the expenses of my last illness, the expenses of my funeral and burial, my just debts, all inheritance and estate taxes imposed on my taxable estate including life insurance or any beneficiary thereof and the expense of administering my estate.

FIFTH: Separate writing disposing of personal property. I intend to dispose of items of tangible personal property not specifically disposed of by this Will by a written statement or list which I will hereafter prepare and thereafter may alter from time to time before my death. Such statement or list shall either be in my handwriting or be signed by me and shall describe each item which I give and the person to whom I give it with reasonable certainty. I intend that such statement or list shall comply with the provisions of Idaho Code Section 15-2-513.

SIXTH: Gift of personal effects - Children. Personal effects means my clothing, jewelry, family pictures, household goods and furniture, personal automobiles, sporting equipment and other tangible articles of personal use. I give all of my personal effects which I have not disposed of under other provisions of this will and which I have not disposed of under the paragraph of this will entitled "Separate Writing Disposing of Personal Property", together with the insurance thereon, to my children who survive me for thirty days in equal shares as they shall agree.

SEVENTH: Gift of residue of my estate. I give, bequeath and devise all of the rest and residue and remainder of my estate of whatever nature and wherever situated as follows:

1. I direct that the residue of my estate be divided into as many equal shares as there are children of mine who have survived me and children of mine who have predeceased me leaving issue surviving me. I give one such share to each child of mine who has survived me and one such share to the issue, per stirpes, of each child of mine who has predeceased me leaving issue surviving me.

2. If all of my issue predecease me, then I give the residue of my estate to my heirs. The identities and the respective shares of my heirs shall be determined at the date of my death and according to the laws of the State of Idaho then in effect relating to the succession of separate property not acquired from a predeceased spouse.

EIGHTH: Trusts for persons under specified age. If any person is entitled to a share of my estate under the provisions of this Will and is under age twenty-one on the date of my death, then the share of such person shall not go to such person but instead shall go to the TRUSTEE hereinafter named to be held, IN A SEPARATE TRUST, for the benefit of such person as beneficiary. The trustee (trustee when used herein in the singular includes the plural thereof) for each separate trust created above shall be my children who shall serve as joint trustees without bond and if one of them shall fail to qualify or resign or cease to act as trustee then no vacancy shall be deemed to exist and the other or others shall serve as joint trustees or as sole trustee as the case may be. The trustees above named shall act unanimously and the decision of the trustees upon all matters shall be binding upon all persons dealing with the trustees or interested in each separate trust. If the office of trustee becomes vacant, then any Court of competent jurisdiction may appoint a successor trustee which shall be a bank or trust company authorized by law to act as trustee which shall act as sole trustee.

Each such separate trust shall be administered separately but no physical division of the assets of such separate trusts shall be required. Each such separate trust shall be held, administered and distributed as follows:

1. While the beneficiary is under age twenty-one, the trustee shall pay or apply for the benefit of the beneficiary as much of the net income and principal of the trust estate as the trustee deems advisable for the support and education of the beneficiary after taking into consideration to the extent which the trustee deems advisable any other income or resources of the beneficiary known to the trustee. Any income not distributed shall be accumulated and added to the principal of the trust estate.
2. When the beneficiary reaches age twenty-one, the trustee shall forthwith distribute the full balance of the trust estate to the beneficiary.
3. If the beneficiary dies before distribution of the full balance of the trust estate, the trust shall terminate and the undistributed balance thereof shall forthwith be distributed, free of trust, to the beneficiary's then living issue, by right of representation, or, if there are none, to my then living issue, by right of representation, but if any share thereof would be distributed to a person for whose benefit a separate trust hereby created is then being administered then such share shall instead be added to such separate trust and administered according to its terms.
4. If the death of the beneficiary of such separate trust occurs before the trust estate of any such separate trust has been distributed in full and no other disposition thereof is directed by this Will, the trustee shall forthwith distribute the undistributed balance thereof, free of trust, to my heirs. The identities and respective shares of my heirs shall be determined as though my death had then occurred and according to any applicable laws then in effect relating to the succession of separate property not acquired from a predeceased spouse.
5. The trustee may make payments to a beneficiary while under legal disability by making such payments to the guardian of the beneficiary or by making such payments to any suitable person with whom the beneficiary resides or by applying such payments directly to the benefit of the beneficiary, all as the trustee deems advisable.

6. No interest in the principal or income of the trust estate shall be anticipated or assigned or encumbered or subject to any creditor's claim or subject to legal process, prior to the actual receipt thereof by a beneficiary.

7. In the administration of and to carry out the purposes of the trust and subject to any limitations stated elsewhere in this Will, the trustee shall have:

7.(a) Power to continue to hold any property including shares of the trustee's own stock and to operate at the risk of the trust estate any business or interest therein, corporate or otherwise, that the trustee receives or acquires under the trust as long as the trustee deems advisable.

7.(b) Power to manage, control, lease for terms within or beyond the term of the trust, grant options on, sell for cash or on deferred payments, convey, exchange, partition, divide, improve, develop, construct, alter, rebuild and repair property of the trust estate.

7.(c) Power to borrow money from any lender including the trustee and to encumber or hypothecate trust property by mortgage, deed of trust, pledge, or otherwise.

7.(d) Power to lend, relend, invest and reinvest the trust estate or any part thereof in any and every kind of property and every kind of investment which men of prudence, discretion and intelligence acquire for their own account, specifically including but not limited to corporate obligations of every kind, preferred or common stocks, shares of investment trusts or investment companies or mutual funds, mortgages or trust deeds or participations therein, and any common trust fund available to or administered by the trustee.

7.(e) Power to exercise each and all of the powers of an owner with respect to all securities (including but not limited to stocks and bonds) comprising part of the trust estate.

7.(f) Power to employ employees, agents, managers, accountants, attorneys, brokers and investment counselors in the administration of the trust and to determine and pay their compensation as an expense of the trust, all of the trustee deems advisable.

7.(g) Power to carry, at the expense of the trust, insurance of such kinds and in such amounts as the trustee deems advisable to protect the trust estate and the trustee against hazard.

7.(h) Power to commence or defend such litigation with respect to the trust or any property of the trust estate at the expense of the trust and to compromise or otherwise adjust any claims or litigation against or in favor of the trust, all as the trustee deems advisable.

7.(i) Power to require such indemnity as the trustee deems advisable before taking any step which may subject the trustee to loss.

7.(j) Power to withhold from the trust reasonable compensation for the services rendered by the trustee in the administration of the trust.

7.(k) Power to pay from the trust all reasonable expenses which are reasonably incurred in the administration of the trust.

7.(l) Power to pay such portion up to all thereof as the trustee deems reasonable of all estate taxes (meaning all estate, inheritance and other taxes of any nature and all penalties and interest thereon) which are payable or assessed or imposed upon any person or any property passing (whether such property is part of or outside of the trust estate) because of the death of a settlor or a beneficiary or the termination of a trust.

7.(m) Power to make distributions in cash or in specific property including undivided interests therein or partly in cash and partly in such property.

7.(n) Power to terminate any trust at anytime that the trustee deems advisable because the trust estate is so small that it is no longer economic or practical to continue such trust whereupon the trustee shall forthwith distribute the balance of the trust estate to the current income beneficiary or beneficiaries and shall be released from all further liability and accountability therefore.

7.(o) Power to distribute principal or income due a minor or an incompetent upon termination of any trust without bond to the minor or the incompetent or to the person with whom the minor or the incompetent resides or to the parent of the minor or incompetent and the receipt of such person shall release the trustee from all further liability and accountability therefore.

7.(p) Power to exercise all of the powers conferred upon a trustee by law and any applicable Uniform Trustee's Powers Act, from time to time existing.

8. The trustee shall determine, except as otherwise provided in this Will, all matters with respect to what is principal and income of the trust estate, the apportionment and allocation of receipts and expenses between those accounts and the net income of the trust estate under the provisions of any applicable Principal and Income Law from time to time existing. If any such matter is not provided for either by this Will or by such law, the trustee shall make such determination thereof as the trustee deems advisable.

9. The trustee shall keep accurate records of the administration of the trust estate and shall annually furnish to all parties interested in the trust estate, or their legal representatives, a full and complete statement of all receipts and disbursements and of all gains and losses of the trust estate together with a statement of all of the assets and liabilities thereof.

10. No bond shall be required of the trustee for the faithful performance of the duties of the trustee. All of those dealing with the trustee are exonerated from any duty to inquire into the propriety of any action taken by and to see to the proper application of any money paid to the trustee.

11. The validity of the trust and the construction of its provisions shall be governed by the applicable laws in force from time to time of the State of Idaho.

NINTH: Survival of beneficiaries for thirty days. For the purposes of this Will and unless another period of time is expressly provided a person shall not be deemed to survive me if such person dies within thirty (30) days of my death, nor to survive another if such person dies within thirty (30) days of the death of such other.

TENTH: Revocation of prior Wills. I revoke all Wills and Codicils that I have previously made.

SIGNED: I signed this Will on APR 3 1989.

RE: DECREED WATER RIGHTS 57-272, 57-1124, 57-10604

To the Benson's

The Department received SRBA Change in Address of Notice of Claim forms from you in December 2000.

It appears that what is actually needed in change in ownership for water rights. I have enclosed a copy of the decreed water right along with a Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership form for each of the decreed water rights involved.

Please complete the form and return it to this office with the required support data and filing fee of $25.00 per water right.

If you have any questions regarding this matter, please call me at 208-287-4952.

Sincerely,

Kari Lynn Townsend

RE: Phone conversation with Jerry Benson

We received four (4) SRBA Change in Address of Notice of Claim forms from Western region. Three of these forms show one of the above numbers. The 4th form has no water right/claim number shown. The numbered forms are listed below and show the name of the signer.

1. Claim 57-10604 . . . signed by Randy Benson (son of Jerry Benson)
2. Claim 57-00272 . . . signed by Bruce Benson (son of Jerry Benson)
3. Claim 57-01124 . . . signed by Jerry L. Benson and Faye Benson
4. Form without a claim number is signed by Scott Benson (son of Jerry Benson)

These claims have all been partially decreed.

Water rights 57-00272 and 57-10604 are decreed in the names of Sandra J. Benson (deceased in 1994) and Jerry L. Benson. Jerry L. Benson has remarried and his current wife is Faye Benson.

Water right 57-01124 is decreed in the name of Benson Farms Inc. According to Jerry L. Benson the Benson Farms Inc. was made up of himself, his father and his brother.

Mr. Benson said he received the forms from IDWR that were then filled out and returned to IDWR. He stated that he was told that he needed to show new ownership to include his current wife and that the portion of ownership that was in the name of Sandra J. Benson has been shifted to the three (3) sons (Randy, Bruce & Scott) by means of the will of Sandra Benson. According to Mr. Benson, this is an undivided split among the three (3) sons.

Mr. Benson also indicated that there are other claims/decreed rights existing that are not mentioned in this group that were part of the original Benson family claims. He said that some of the property has been sold to buyers outside the family but he isn't sure what claims belong to the new owners.
