The image is an aerial photograph of a landscape, possibly a valley, overlaid with a black grid. A blue grid is also visible, with lines spaced further apart than the black grid. A red vertical line runs down the right side of the image. Several red-outlined shapes are drawn on the map, primarily in the lower-left and lower-right quadrants. These shapes include clusters of circles and larger, irregular polygons. Some of these red-outlined areas contain small yellow dots. There are also some small red triangles and lines within the red-outlined shapes. At the bottom of the image, there is a white rectangular box containing the text 'App For Transfer 73745 East Valley Cattle'. Below this box, there are several more white rectangular boxes, some of which are partially obscured by the red-outlined shapes.
