Got the POA, thanks. Also, I zoomed in on the qq's which didn't register on the permit pou when I 'updated to pls' from the shapes and they were actually there. They were probably just too small to register. I am going to put them back in so you shouldn't have to change anything. I'll let you know if I come across anything else I need!

Jeanie-

Thanks for your attendance and input at the meeting this afternoon, I'm sorry I couldn't stick around to the place of use ironed out for the permit. I'm sure we will be discussing that aspect of the permit in the days to come. Attached is a limited power of attorney document allowing Chuck Sr. to sign for Sun Valley Ranch LLC, sorry I hadn't provided you with it earlier. Thanks again and give me a call with comments or questions-
