

6 June 1997

I, Kyle DeNaghel, son of Harry and Evelyn DeNaghel, was raised in Adrian, Ohio on their farm, the original John W. Parke land. They purchased the farm on April 23, 1943 from Glen & Thora Adams, husband & wife. A deed was issued to them along with ~~with~~ all water rights conveyed to them. I was born in 1940. Growing up on the farm, my dad, Harry DeNaghel, and Ira Park's were the only two parties I was aware of owning water from Lake Cleveland. They made repairs on the dam, put in new headgate and cleaned the ditch from Lake Cleveland to Marsh Creek almost yearly.

The water from Lake Cleveland was generally put on Ira Park's farm first, as his waste water came onto our farm. Also the upper end of our farm subbed a lot from Ira's farm.
