Thank you John. Terry has taken his entire family to court over the estate and he was not successful. To finalize the estate, one of the requirements was that he drop the protest of water rights against us, as we own the property and we are entitled to water on our 1 acre. His lawyer, Mr. Gillespie, has shown the estate lawyer those papers, I was curious if you had received anything as of this date. Thanks for the email. We will be patient and wait until March 1st.

Warm regards,

Nancy M. Evans

Mrs. Evans:

This e-mail is in response to your voice mail left on 02/17/10.

Our office has not yet received a protest withdrawal from Mr. Williams/Attorney Gillespie. If we receive a withdrawal, I will notify you.

We recently received a phone voice-mail from Mr. Gillespie stating he would not be available for a conference in April-June. On February 4th, my assistant sent him another letter and calendars for July and August, see attached. The deadline is now 03/01—this is their last chance. I will let you know where we are on 03/02.

Appreciate your patience!

John Westra, IDWR.

Mr. Westra,

Thank you for keeping me posted on the hearing. It looks like we will wait until a February 26th to hear from you. I appreciate you keeping me informed of the progress and look forward to resolving this issue as soon as possible. Thank you again for your efforts on this request.

Warm regards,

Nancy M. Evans

Mrs. Evans:

As I had not received a response from Mr. Gilleppe, I sent the attached with deadline. If there is no response, I will proceed with dismissing the protest.

Thank you. I look forward to hearing from you soon. It has been our experience with Gillespie's Office, not to look for a speedy answer. We have not found their office to be very prudent in these matters. I truly hope you are more successful. Thank you again for proceeding with our claim.

Warm regards,

Nancy M. Evans

Mrs. Evans:

Before our agency can approve the application, the protest from Mr. Williams must be dealt with. As we discussed, a protest conference needs to be scheduled with Mr. Williams. If the protest is withdrawn or a settlement made, I then can move ahead with an approval.

I have contacted Attorney Gillespie's office regarding his availability in February-March for a protest conference. His assistant (Heather) and I discussed the possibility of Mr. Williams withdrawing his protest. She will respond to me with either available conference dates or a withdrawal. I expect their response in the next couple of days.

Will keep you posted.
Thank you
