

safe drinking

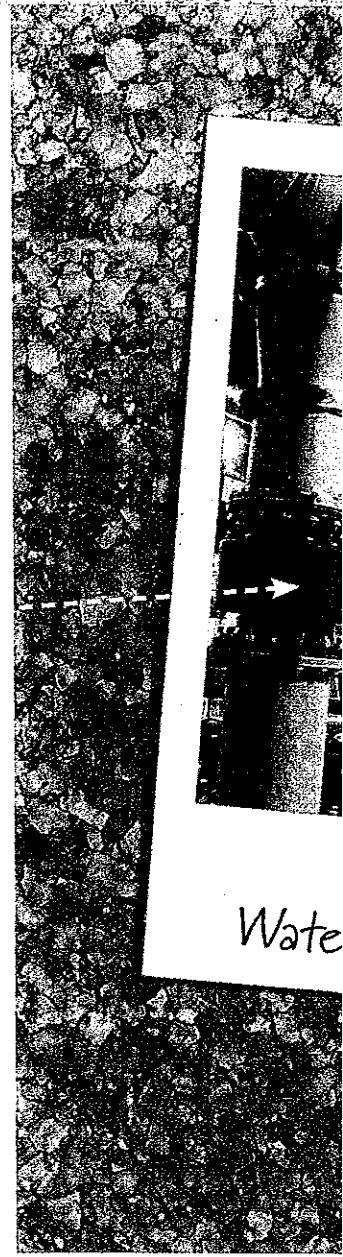

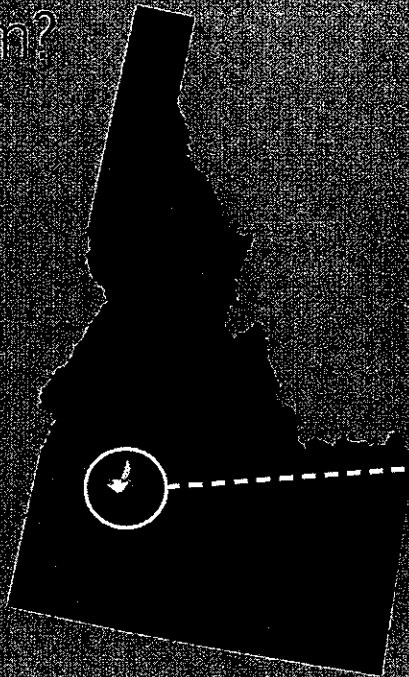

EXHIBIT
427

PWSID # 4010016

WHERE DOES YOUR WATER come from?

United Water Idaho uses a combination of surface and ground water to serve more than 240,000 residents in the Boise area.

Approximately 72 percent of your water is supplied from 83 wells located throughout the area. The remaining 28 percent of your water comes from two surface water treatment plants (Marden Water Treatment Plant and Columbia Water Treatment Plant) which both treat water from the Boise River.

Water

open here