

Figure 1. Location map of the M3-Eagle development boundary and lines of cross section developed from driller's logs. Well locations used in the cross-sections were plotted to the nearest quarter-quarter section or as determined from field visits. Township and range boundaries are denoted in red, as well as the approximate boundary of the development in gray.

EXHIBIT
70