This was a copy of my earlier e-mail, but the attachment with this one sent today had the new dates. The publication should now be on December 17 and 24, 2009. I didn't make that change in the e-mail when forwarding this to you and Sheri earlier today. The legal notice that was attached, however, should have the correct publication dates and the date for affidavit and billing also obviously extends - but if possible I'd like to get the billing on this one sometime before the end of the year, rather than waiting for the billing after January 1.

Thank you very much

Don't count the days, let the days count.
