Larry and Kay,

I just talked with John Westra at the IDWR. He would be glad to resend the revised Settlement Agreement letter in an effort to obtain the protestant's signatures. However, before he does, we both agreed that there is a bit of apathy happening with the protestants and that a simple letter may not be as effective as personal interaction. It may be more effective to have you personally take the revised letter around to the protestants to obtain their signature. I'm afraid that if we rely on them to return a letter to IDWR that it will never happen and there will be no closure before the hearing date.

John assured me that this is a perfectly reasonable way to bring closure to this protest. Therefore, if you are willing, please meet with each protestant personally to explain the Settlement Agreement in an effort to obtain their signature on the Settlement Agreement letter. If you are successful, IDWR can complete their processing.

If you have any questions please call. I'm sure John would be happy to answer any questions too.
