Re: Croy Canyon Ranch Foundation / Permit 37-22436

Dear Jeff:

By way of follow-up to our phone conversation today, Condition No. 5 on the above-referenced permit indicates that irrigation under the 42-111(a) domestic exemption is limited to "1/2 acre within each platted lot upon which a dwelling has been constructed." In this case, there will be up to 24 individual cabins but the property itself will be owned by the Foundation; i.e. there will only be one "platted lot." My understanding is that the Department has determined that the exemption will apply to each standalone cabin unit with an associated clearly-defined yard or area of landscape irrigation, even though each unit is not situated on individual platted lots. Could you please confirm that this condition may be interpreted in this manner?

Cordially,

Charles G. Brockway, P.E.
