RE: Phone Conversation with Nancy Flamand

Mr. Flamand was under the impression that the field exam would be conducted directly after the submittal of his statement of completion. In an email to IDWR from Mr. Flamand on July 08, 2009, he stated that he would not be at the St Joe until next summer. This is what prompted Mr. Flamand to ask Aaron Marshall in the email to delete his statement of completion he had already submitted, but without the fee.

Today I made a telephone call to Mr. and Mrs. Flamand. I spoke with Nancy Flamand to inform her and Eugene Flamand that it could be quite some time before IDWR would be able to conduct a field exam due to priority being placed on processing transfers right now, and the incredible backlog of exams that already exists. I suggested that it would be best for them to go ahead and submit the license exam fee since their statement of completion had already been submitted. They both agreed.
