Having considered the petitions and there being no written objections thereto, the Bingham Groundwater District Board of Directors deems annexation of the proposed lands and facilities as listed under the specific ground water rights in the Notice of Filing of Petitions for Annexation of Land and Facilities into the Bingham Groundwater District in the best interest of the District. Therefore, the Board hereby orders that said lands and facilities be annexed into the District.

Hereafter, the annexed lands shall be subject to such assessments from time to time as the Boards of Directors shall deem right under the circumstances, and such assessments shall be deemed to be assessments for benefits to said lands by reason of their annexation to said District.

Ordered by unanimous vote of the Board of Directors (present).
