To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in reference to my conversation with Deborah Gibson today requesting omission of a water-measuring device.

Please see letter dated 9-1-08 from Water Master Eric Herr for 65A stating that requirements for being able to regulate the amount of water being used based on the horsepower and the number of sprinklers used is adequate.

I have looked at their diversion and irrigation system, and it meets my requirements for being able to regulate the amount of water being used; based on the horsepower & number of sprinklers used.

Eric Herr, watermaster for 65A
