RESPONSE TO PENDING MOTION OF
DEAN AND EDEN DIMOND

On October 1st, 2008, the Applicant's attorneys received a copy of a document signed by Dean and Eden Dimond, entitled "Motion to dismiss the pending water transfer and to further augment the record with the fact that Don McFarland DBA as Big Sky Farms no longer owns the property or the disputed water rights." This is a response to that Motion.

1. On February 12th, 2008, a Warranty Deed was recorded in the records of Jerome County, Idaho. The Warranty Deed, a copy of which is attached hereto as EXHIBIT A, conveyed the real property therein described to South View Dairy, an Idaho general partnership, Tony Visser, William Dejong and Ryan Visser Partners. The water rights which are involved in this transfer proceeding are appurtenant to that real property.

2. On February 20th, 2008, a Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership form regarding the water rights which are the subject of this pending transfer proceeding, was sent for filing to the Idaho Department of Water Resources. A copy of the transmittal letter and executed Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership form are attached hereto collectively as EXHIBIT B. The Idaho Department of Water Resources has subsequently acknowledged receipt of this form.

3. The filing of the Notice of Change in Water Right Ownership fully complies with the requirement of Idaho Code §42-248(1), requiring the filing of such a form within one hundred twenty (120) days of a change of ownership. There are no other statutes of the State of Idaho that required the Applicant to file any other document regarding the conveyance of the real property, the change of ownership in the water right, or this transfer proceeding.

4. Mr. and Mrs. Dimond contend that other documents or notices regarding the change of the ownership of the water rights and real property to which they are appurtenant were required to be filed with the Department or sent to them. No authority has been submitted by the Dimonds in support of their contentions. Even though the Warranty Deed and the Notice of Change of Ownership are public documents to which the Dimonds or any other member of the public had access, they accuse the Applicant and those representing them of being "fraudulent" and "deceptive". These are baseless accusations.

5. The Idaho Department of Water Resources has frequently conditioned the approval of water right transfers upon the Applicant complying with independent provisions of law, administrated by other agencies. The operator of a heifer feedlot, such as that proposed by the original Applicant, must have an approved Nutrient Management Plan as a condition of operating. (Idaho Code §22-4906) Should the Department approve the transfer application it may be conditioned upon the owner of the property and appurtenant water rights having a Nutrient Management Plan for the facility approved by the Idaho Department of Agriculture, pursuant to Idaho Code §22-4906. No changes have been made in the Application for Transfer. The decision of the Department should be based upon the existing Application for Transfer and evidence as now submitted. It is the State of Idaho Department of Agriculture who has the enforcement responsibility over Nutrient Management Plans, not the Idaho Department of Water Resources. That is true for Big Sky Farms Limited Partnership or any successor in interest to it.

6. The balance of the Dimonds' motion contains opinions, hearsay, testimony not under oath and legal contentions which are not supported by any authority. Their requests to augment the record and for the Applicant to pay "costs" are also not supported by any authority.

Because the transfer of ownership of the water rights subject to the Application for Transfer and the conveyance of the real property to which they are appurtenant were filed with the proper governmental agencies in a timely manner, as required by law, the Dimonds' motion should be denied in all respects.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED this 15th day of October, 2008.
