Mr. Anderson,

Thank you for your response. I will include you on any future mailings regarding this ownership matter. I have spoken with Victoria Morrison on behalf of her father, L.J. Morrison. She relayed similar plans to discuss with family members and then respond to my letter.

There are no set deadlines at this time. I am holding both the transfer application and the ownership change from processing until the ownership is clarified and then forfeiture issues are addressed. If I don't receive comment in the next 30 days or so, I will probably send another letter out requesting comment, or reason not to return these forms for inadequate information.

Again, thank you for your response.

Pamela, I am the attorney representing Craig Morrison, the trustee of the Adele Wright trust. L.J. Morrison is Craig's brother and is one of the beneficiaries of the trust that owns the farm to which the water rights relate. Craig is going to be meeting with the family in the near future to discuss trust issues and then we will be better able to respond to the questions posed in your letter dated February 23, 2007. Would you please include me in your communications regarding the water rights? Are there any deadlines I should be aware of?
