Re: Pocatello's 1996 Mitigation Plan

Dear Mr. Tranmer:

In 1996, the City of Pocatello submitted a mitigation plan to comply with the conjunctive management rules of the Idaho Department of Water Resources ("IDWR"). IDWR initiated processes for consideration of the mitigation plan, but the IDWR never determined whether the plan should be approved or rejected.

On January 24, 2008, you wrote a letter withdrawing the 1996 proposed mitigation plan, and proposing to file a new plan with the Department.

This letter acknowledges the withdrawal of the 1996 mitigation plan. IDWR appreciates your cooperation in attempting to find solutions to the administration of water issues in Southeast Idaho.

Sincerely,

Gary Spackman
