Here's an amended map. Thanks for your attention on this one; their existing well is failing fast and they want to drill the new one as soon as they can get equipment in there.

Have a good weekend.

Roxanne:

Good point about amended map. It should not need endorsement since it's more "stand alone" page then others in the application.

I see the problem! The map outlines the area owned by Jughandle; the application indicates the location of the actual homes (the area not shown on page 1 of the app (NESE) is the part of each lot that is too steep for building, the homes are in the NWSE)

I can amend the map; I hate amend the app. to indicate an area we know does not have domestic use. Would an amended map also need the applicants initials?
