Vicky,

We have had some big issues with this one. Erin Retelle was working on it, and it hasn't been looked at since she left. I will ask someone to look at it this afternoon, but I'm not sure the licensing issues can be resolved quickly. I will see that you're kept apprised of our progress.

Hi Shelley

We have initial hearings next week on Basin 37 Part 2 objections--this is one of them. There's a transfer involved in this and the file is evidently in your in-basket. Would you mind giving me an update on how it's going? Beeman represents the claimant, and she indicated in their objection that licensing the right could resolve their issues.

We leave for Fairfield Wednesday. Thanks!! - Vicki
