To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Arlo Kunz and I am a lifetime resident of Bern, Idaho.

I am writing to provide some historical information about the natural creek that flows near the ranch of Clyde Cook.

The creek is a natural spring that starts near the Pete Nelsen cabin - this is the name of the property that I knew it by growing up, but is currently owned by a person with the surname, Bunderson. The spring connects to the Bear Hollow creek and then has always flowed into the field located above the current residence of Clyde Cook. Depending on the yearly snowfall and precipitation, the flow of the creek has slightly changed. I remember around 1943, Charles Kunz used the spring to irrigate their garden and potato patch.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at (208) 847-1222.

Best regards,
