EXHIBIT A

On February 9, 2007 at approximately 1:30 PM the deposition of Jai K. Nelson was taken by John Layman of Layman, Layman and Robinson, attorneys for the applicant at the office of Layman, Layman and Robinson at 110 Wallace Avenue in Coeur d' Alene, Idaho.

At the beginning of the proceeding I, Jai K. Nelson, noted to Mr. Layman that I had recently injured my back and was experiencing intractable sciatic nerve pain as a consequence. I noted that I was on a considerable amount of prescribed medications. These medications included six prescriptions; two narcotics, (opiates) a benzodiazepine, a central nervous system acting agent, a steroid and a muscle relaxant. I noted to Mr. Layman that my cognitive abilities were impaired. Specifically, I relayed that I felt "fuzzy" and "slow" due to all the pharmaceuticals I was taking for the injury. In addition, during the deposition, I had difficulty remembering dates, numbers and/or recalling information.

Therefore, the content of my deposition is of questionable validity as evidence due to my condition at the time of the deposition.

Dated this 16th day of February 2007.
