TO:
FROM: ARTHUR J. PETERSEN
SUBJECT: DRAINAGE AND RECLAMATION OF McALLISTER PROPERTY

Dear Mr. McAllister:

It was good to meet you yesterday, and Mr. Petersen and I appreciate your informing us of your desire to drain and reclaim your newly acquired land, adjoining our property.

As you recall, the subject of the effect of draining and diversion of the excess water, might have on our water source, principally a spring. The creek flowing through your land, also flows toward and through our property.

Three, and possibly four previous owners of our property have all used the spring which I mentioned, as their prime water source. The creek was used by one or two owners for irrigation purposes. It has also been my intention to do likewise and to use it as a source of water for fire emergency.

The spring provides the water needs for two households on our property. Presently there are five of us here. When we entertain guests the number of users of Mr. McAllister drainage co. Ltd.

The spring water increases.
The use of the spring as a water source here extends back over a period of some 30 years, as well as I can estimate.

While we would like you to use and enjoy your land to the fullest extent, we want to be assured that any drainage or water diversion introduced by you, on your land, will not affect our principal, or secondary sources of water.

In draining, reclaiming and diverting ground water on your land, you will be solving a problem benefitting your occupancy.

Our concern lies in the possibility of an adverse effect on our water supply.

Mr. McAllister, this possibility may be remote and so with all benefit to you and no damage to us. This is what we would wish for, for your interests and ours as well.

We are nevertheless mindful of the possibility of adverse results, and therefore cannot endorse your plan,

for in doing so there would result a diminishment of recourse we would have.

Please bear in mind Mr. The Allister our intentions, as neighbors, are of good will and friendship. Any decision to follow through on your announced plan, as mentioned in the subject of this letter, must be yours.

We wish you well in your anticipation of settling on your land and establishing your home here.

Sincerely
Arthur Petersen
