1. The first step in the process of creating a new product is to identify a market need. This involves conducting market research to understand the preferences and behaviors of potential customers. Once a need is identified, the next step is to develop a concept that addresses this need. This concept should be innovative and differentiated from existing products in the market.

Dear Mr Beardslee,

I am using my water right Number 96-04489 for irrigation purposes and I plan to continue using it for this purpose.

The application Number L-96-S-779 has been approved by the state land board and has been approved by the Army Corp of Engineers. In this application there will be no water diverted from the Pend Oreille river nor any delivered to the Pend Oreille River. There will be a closed loop placed on the bed of the river and water and chemicals circulated. There will be no joints or openings in the part that is in the river.

If you have further questions you may call me or I can call you and explain what is planned and being done.

Thank you

Sincerely

Ward R. Tifft

RE: Claim No. 96-4489

Dear Claimant:

The Department of Water Resources has completed the advertising of your claim to a water right, and no further action is authorized under Section 42-243 and 42-244, IDAHO CODE. Your claim will be retained in our files and will be available at any time for use by you or the court.

The filing and advertising of the claim does not confirm the water right claimed, but will serve to record and preserve the information and the evidence which you included in your claim.

If, at a later date, you find that you have additional information or supporting evidence that you would like to have included with the claim, you may have that information or evidence added at any time. Please refer to the claim identification number when corresponding with this office.

We are enclosing a copy of your claim for your records. If you have questions, or if this office may be of further assistance, please feel free to contact us.

Yours truly,

Robert G. Haynes, P.E.
Regional Supervisor
