Dear Tom:

Re: Water Claim for Glen and Louisa Ford

At the time that I filed my water claim in 1980 or 1981, I indicated that I planned to move my source up an unnamed tributary of Cougar Creek, the place from which I had been using water since 1961. The reason was simple: Cougar creek was running through a pasture containing cattle. By moving my source, all on my own property, to a small spring, I was able to avoid the chance of contamination of my water. The small damn built in front of the spring and the move to the new location took place within two years from the time that I filed my water claim. I know that at the time it was perfectly legal to make such a move. This letter is to verify and update the records for my longstanding claim.

I appreciate your help in this regard.

Thankyou,

Glen A. Ford
