Re: 98-4282

Gentlemen:

The following is an exception filed against Water Right No. 98-4282, published in the Bonners Ferry Herald, August 11 and 4. I am basing my exception on the following reasons:

1. Tributary listed as unnamed is in effect Dunning Creek.
2. Dunning Creek is identified on SCS maps as an intermittent stream.
3. Volume of water to be used for irrigation purposes (2.00 CFS), is in excess of stream flow during the period of June 1 to October 31.
4. Present owner has held title to the property for approximately five years; historic use of water does not go back to 1920. To my knowledge, the only use of water for irrigation on the property since 1945 occurred for one year approximately in 1973.

I have no exception with the claim for the domestic water right. My may concern is the considered use of more water than is there.

Yours truly,

Leonard Kucera

Dear Sir:

I am filing a protest for water rights, no 98-4282. to the fact that they Randolph, Joel Christad, & Virginia Mair are filing on what they say is and unnamed tributary to Frateran River. If you check your files you will find in reality it is Dunning Creek. And four families below them also have water rights on this creek.
