RE: Water Permit No. 90-4080

Dear Mr. King:

If you will recall, I talked with you on the telephone on October 10, 1977 regarding this Claim to a Water Right. It was originally mailed into your office on August 12, 1977, and you returned it to us on September 27, 1977, stating we did not send you the $10.00 fee. I finally found the original receipt from when I first sent in the two "Claims". I can now see where the misunderstanding lies as on the receipt she does acknowledge receiving $20.00 and two claims, although she only references the Claim No. 98-4081 and not 98-4080. Claim No. 98-4081 is all taken care of - it has been published and accepted. Claim No. 98-4080 is still up in the air. Originally, when I sent in the Claim I incorrectly put down Twp. 63N instead of Twp. 62N. The correct township is T62N.

I am sending you back the Ammended Claim you prepared. I am quite sure the Original Claim was never published in the paper as I have been watching for it and I did call you about it when the other claim was published by itself.

I sure hope this clears it all up.

Thank you for your help.

Very truly yours,

Roberta Thompson

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Thompson:

I believe there is an error in your Claim to a Water Right #98-4080. You have listed 2 points of diversion in Section 4, T63N, R3E. Since Curley Creek does not flow through this section I have prepared an "Ammended Claim" changing the Claim to read T62N.

Please have the Ammended Claim notarized and returned to this office.

If this office can be of any further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Sincerely,
