Gentlemen:

The following is an exception filed against water right number 98-4071, published in the Bonners Ferry Herald October21 and 28. I am basing my exception on the following reasons:

1. Tributary listed as Unnamed, is in affect Dunning Creek.
2. Dunning Creek is identified on SCS maps as an intermittent stream.
3. Volume of water to be used for irrigation purposes (1.22 cfs), is in excess of stream flow during the period June 1 to October 31.

I have no exception with the claim for the domestic water right, my main concern is the considered use of more water than is there.

Yours Truly,

Leonard Kucera
