Mr. D. L. Christensen

Dear Mr. Christensen:

In response to your letter of May 29, 1975, a Claim to a Water Right which you have submitted is a procedure to record existing water rights that have not previously been recorded. Once the Claim has been submitted and processed by our Department, it is not required to renew or prove up the right at a later date.

Perhaps your friend was referring to an "Application for Permit" which is used to develop new water rights. These permits do have to be "proved up" within a certain period of time, and then a license is issued. However, in your case you have taken all necessary steps in which to properly record the rights from the spring.

In connection with adding your wife's name to the Claim, we will enter your letter in your Claim file and place your request on record.

If we may be of any further assistance in this matter, feel free to contact us.

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir: Water Right 98-4016

The above claim was published in the Bonners Ferry Herald on August 2 and August 9, 1973, and my application was signed July 20th of the same year.

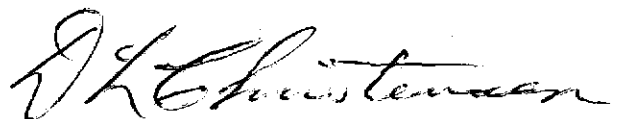

One of my friends just informed me that in connection with his claim he was informed that he would have to "prove" his water right within a certain period of time or would face the possibility of losing it. His claim is for water from a creek and mine from ## a spring.

I would appreciate some clarification on this. Our claim covers water from an unnamed spring and the water right was purchased in 1967 from the rancher who was willing to "share" the spring as he had developed another one. The spring is 1200 feet east of our property line, but all the necessary easements and legal papers have been recorded. The piping was installed in 1968 and we used the water periodically until May of 1972 when we put it to regular use, for household as well as irrigation and small stock water use. Am I required to "prove" anything?

I regret taking your time, but this is quite important and I will appreciate your reply some time at your convenience.

Yours truly,

D. L. Christensen

p.s. Can this claim be made joint with my wife, Ione, so as to eliminate problems in the future?
