Dear Ms. Daily:

I am returning your copy of the last page of your Claim to a Water Right.

It is not possible to file groundwater on the same claim as surface water (springs). You may file a new claim on the wells, if you wish, however, if you are not irrigating more than $\frac{1}{2}$ acre of land from each well, then you are not required to file, by law.

If I can be of any further assistance, please contact me at this office.

Re: Claim # 97-4220

Dear Sir,

We have received your letter and copy of our water rights claim. We were suprised to see that our two wells were not included since we had given the information about them to our attorney, James Paulson, when we asked him to make out the claim papers. I have added an X near each house to indicate the wells from which we get our main domestic water at this time and am sending you a copy.

Thank you for your attention to this.
