Re: Claim of adverse water use

Dear Mr. Watson:

We are in receipt of your request that the Department of Water Resources take certain actions pursuant to Title 42 Chapter 2 of the Idaho Code. In response to your letter, we have conducted an on site field review of the Fighting Creek Landfill. We found the three holding ponds which you referred to in your letter; however, the water detained in these ponds does not appear public water because the water is there as a result of rain and snow falling directly on the landfill. A diversion ditch channels water not falling directly on the site around the site and into an unnamed tributary of Fighting Creek. We refer you to King v. Chamberlain, 20 Idaho 504, 509-513, 118 Pac. 1099 (1911) for an explanation of why this water is not subject to the provisions of the statutes cited in your letter. Additionally, the review of the site and well logs for wells in the area does not indicate ground water in quantities that could effect stream flows.

We understand how a large increase in sediment might effect your clients ability to use water under his water right. The Department of Water Resources has no jurisdiction regarding the kind of situation you reported. That responsibility is vested with the Division of Environmental Quality of the Department of Health and Welfare.

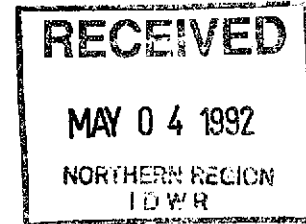

Unless you can provide us with some evidence of matters under are jurisdiction relating to your request, we will decline to set the matter for hearing. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me.

RE: Claim of adverse water use

Dear Director,

Based upon representations from your office obtained this date, it is my understanding that Kootenai County has never perfected a water right or applied for a permit from the Department of Water Resources for appropriation and use of waters located at the Fighting Creek Landfill site, more specifically described as Section 1, Township 48 North, Range 5 W.B.M.

In the event you are not aware, the County is appropriating State waters without having met the requirements of Idaho Code Section 42-201 et seq., please be advised that construction of the Kootenai County Landfill was done in the middle of a wetland area and intermittent stream which directly affects the Fighting Creek Drainage, Rockford Bay, and Lake Coeur d'Alene. To date, the County has developed over thirty (30) acres of land at the Fighting Creek site including three (3) significant holding ponds which are detaining both surface and grounds waters. As a result of rainfall events beginning in October of 1989 and continuing through the present, retained waters at these ponds are accumulating unnatural amounts of sediment which are subsequently flushed into the Fighting Creek Drainage and are significantly degrading the quality of my client's water right. My client has obtained approval to appropriate public waters of the State of Idaho dated June 21, 1982 wherein he was authorized to appropriate water for irrigation and power purposes. The identification number of that permit is 95-8157.

Kootenai County's activities at the Fighting Creek Landfill site are significantly affecting my client's water rights as referred to hereinabove and we are asking the Department of Water Resources to take administrative action pursuant to Idaho Code Section 42-237(b).

We are further asking the Department of Resources to schedule a hearing as provided under Section 42-237(c). Please be advised that Judge Judd has already entered an Order in

DIRECTOR, Department of Water Resources
April 30, 1992

Kootenai County Case #83097, CLEAN v. Kootenai County wherein he specifically found that Kootenai County failed to construct site improvements to prevent sediment discharges from the Landfill site and that:

"these violations are causing irreparable injury to the Fighting Creek water course, Rockford Bay and ultimately Lake Coeur d'Alene, in the sense that the additional sedimentation is likely to occur on additional occasions and the quantification of damages in monetary terms is difficult if not impossible."

We are requesting that Kootenai County cease and desist all contamination of the waters of the State and that they immediately stop infringement with my client's water rights granted herein.
