Section 42-225a, Idaho Code

Under the provisions of Section 42-225a, Idaho Code, a person may file a claim to a right to use water which has been established by diversion and application to beneficial use. The filing of this claim does not confirm the water right but will serve for information purposes only. It may, however, become the basis for future adjudication of the water right by the Court.

(name of claimant)

the public water of the State of Idaho

The extent and nature of said claim is as follows:

- (2) Describe the purpose for which the water has been used and the time during the year when you have used the right claimed:

Amount 0.08 cfs Use Fire Prot. Period of Use: From Jan. 1 To Dec. 31

- A claim is not acceptable on a ground-water source with a priority later than March 25, 1963 or on a surface-water source with a priority later than May 20, 1971. An exception to this rule is that a claim may be filed on domestic use from a ground-water source.

- B) Describe means of diversion of water: (pump and pipeline, well, diversion dam, reservoir, length of ditch and field, etc.) Give sizes and capacities; be as specific as possible. 1½ h.p. submersible pump to a 20-gallon and a 60-gallon storage tank, then to place of use by way of pipeline.

- (6) A) Describe location of use by listing number of irrigated acres within each 40-acre tract in appropriate box. If use is not for irrigation, place an "X" in appropriate box to show location.

[illegible]

Total No. of acres 5.89

- B) If the water is used for other than irrigation, fully describe that use, being as specific as possible: Water is used for domestic purposes for irrigation of lawn and garden, and fire protection.

- (7) If you are claiming water as a member of an organization, list name of organization: _____

Dear Mr. Coon:

The Department of Water Resources has completed the processing of your claim to a water right, and no further action is authorized under Section 42-225a and 42-225b, Idaho Code. Your claim will be retained in our files and will be available at any time for use by you or the court.

As you are aware, the filing of a claim does not, in itself, guarantee you a water right; it only records and preserves the information and the evidence which you included in your claim.

If, at a later date, you find that you have additional information or supporting evidence that you would like to have included in your claim file, you may have that information or evidence added at any time. Please refer to your claim number when corresponding with our office.

We are enclosing, for your records, a copy of your claim. If you have any questions, or if we may be of any further assistance, please contact us.

Very truly yours,

ROBERT G. HAYNES

Dear Mr. King:

Thank you for your letter and "Claim for a Water Right" as of July 19th.

Check covering fee and acknowledgement before a Notary was made on the 28th. I then took your advice to check all items on the form. Briefly, there are two minor discrepancies and one gross one from what I think I know that I swore to in the affidavit. The gross one applies to where the water is used---actually in three governmental subdivisions.

Perhaps none would be noticed in my lifetime unless the use of water was to be allotted as to established "rights", however if the form is correctly executed, it could avoid unangling in the future by me ~~and~~ my successors.

To clarify, I will be in Coeur d'Alene one of these days---will call you to be assured that you will be in your office.

Thank you,

J. Howard Coon
