The date appears ok to me. Thanks for your effort to get everyone on track. I've asked Mary to check on the room availability for 1/29 and as soon as we confirm then we'll be sending out the re-schedule notice.

Have a good weekend.

Allen

It appears from the attorneys schedules (Norm, Randy and Roger) that Tuesday January 29th is good for each of them. This was also the basic content of my voice mail message to you a few minutes ago. I believe you did not have any conflicts that day either. So, I'd recommend the 29th. I'm letting each of the attorney's know that this is the way this has fallen together. If there are any problems, please let me know. I'll have to take care of it Monday. In fact, if this is OK, please let me know as well. Thank you. We'll await your notice of rescheduling.
