Dear Mr. Cory:

Mr. Elmer Haggard's permit G-27983 was not rechecked this past irrigation season due to a shortage of field help. The permit will be checked again before any action is taken. It will probably be possible to check the output of Mr. Haggard's well sometime during the 1967 irrigation season.

Dear Mr. Haggard:

We have rechecked the report of the investigation of the pumping equipment on your well in the NEKSEK, Sec. 2, T. 2 S., R. 35 E., B.M. Possibly there was an error in the number of sprinkler nozzles in use at that time; however, using the full number of nozzles for 8 1/4 mile laterals, the amount of water is less than shown on the previous report.

The quantity of water will be rechecked next irrigation season.

You should check the setting of the pump bowls and if they were properly seated there may be loss of efficiency caused by wear of the bowl assembly.

Permit No. G-37983

Pursuant to our telephone conversation this morning we wish to state that since my client, Elmer Haggard, is of the opinion that his well and equipment are wholly adequate to provide sufficient extra water for the additional land, if tested when in first class working condition, we therefore ask that the matter be continued until the spring of 1966 until such time as there will be electrical power and water supply available for an adequate test of the well and equipment, with Mr. Haggard present for the test along with representatives of the State Department of Reclamation.

This letter is being submitted in answer to the formal notice dated October 21st, 1965.

We will sincerely appreciate an extension of time and your cooperation in this matter.

Blackfoot, Idaho

Dear Mr. Haggard:

The field report shows you were producing 2.30 c.f.s. from your well in the NE~~SE~~¼, Sec. 2, T. 2 S., R. 35 E., B.M. for irrigation of land included in License No. G-25307 plus the NW~~NW~~¼, Sec. 1; N~~NE~~¼, Sec. 2. As your land was licensed for 3.45 c.f.s., you are not producing any extra water for the additional land. The two reports of field investigation indicates that the pump should be repaired as you obtained less water under less pressure from 8 laterals instead of 6 laterals.

Enclosed is Form 20 which you may complete from your License No. G-25307 to include extra land under your licensed water right. You must pay for a short legal notice in the county paper for two issues, cost generally under $10.00, plus $1.00 fee to this office.

Also enclosed is a form to relinquish a permit which we request you complete as no water right can be obtained from this permit.
