Dear Mr. Cavaness,

RE: Permit No. 35-2456

We have received the assignments submitted on the above referenced license.

However, we have no procedure for assigning a water right license.

Once a permit is licensed the water right becomes appurtenant to the land and whomever owns the land then owns the water right. We are returning the assignments to you, and will retain the letter in our files for future reference as to the present owner.

If you have any questions, please contact us.

Dear Mr. Zimmerman:

You do not have a Right to irrigate from your well except on the land described in your Water Licenses No. G-24560 and G-26276, however, it is doubtful if anyone will protest your using the water elsewhere on a temporary basis.

In case the use will be permanent, you should request a transfer of place of use to include all the lands to be irrigated.
