Thanks Debbie!

It looks like the problem is that the permit is in the name of an entity (DB Trust) that never existed. The correct entity should have been EB Trust (as documented by Kari Lynn Townsend's conversation memo of 6-30-04 with Tom Bartlett). My assignment form is not signed by the person (Tom Bartlett) who signed the original application, but by someone (Barbara Brown) referenced in the application as Secretary/Treasurer for "Bartlett Trust". I am guessing that "EB" stands for Elaine Bartlett (Tom Bartlett's mother?), and that Brown, Tom Bartlett, and Steve Bartlett are siblings. Neither DB Trust nor EB Trust nor Bartlett Trust show up on the Secretary of State Website as registered business entities, so I can't verify the link between Brown and Bartlett. However, I don't think a Trust necessarily needs to be registered.

I will forward my signed documents to you, so that at least we have something submitted. Kari Lynn's memo does provide a link between EB and DB Trusts. I'll try to get more information from the new property owner, Status Homes.
