All the foregoing reservations of jurisdiction shall extend after the term at which this decree is entered, and during any subsequent term prior to January 1, 1924, at which time, or at such earlier time as the court may determine these matters, this decree shall be closed. In all other respects this decree shall be final.

The court further retains jurisdiction, however, at all times, and from time to time, to make all reasonable rules touching the manner of diverting, measuring and distributing the waters, and the devices to be installed and used for such purposes where it may be impracticable to fully comply with the terms of this decree, and to direct that the parties keep accurate and detailed records of the amounts of water diverted, and to require reports to be filed from time to time of the amount so diverted, and generally to make such orders as may be found reasonably necessary to give effect to the decree, and to appoint commissioners or water masters to make distribution in accordance with its terms, and to punish the parties hereto, their officers, agents and employes, and their grantees and successors in interest, for any violation of the provisions thereof.

Done in open court this 14th day of July, 1920.

FRANK S. DIETRICH,
Judge.
