Keene K. Rigby

being first duly sworn, deposes and says: I would like to file an exception to the claims filed by Ray &/or Lois Bienz, identified by numbers 11-4292 & 11-4293. The spring identified as the source in claim 11-4293 is on my property. I purchased this land from my father who purchased it from his father. The spring never was on Bienz's property. My grandfather put a trough in, in the 1900's and the excess ran onto Bienz's property. My father Truman W. Rigby filed claim to this spring in 1976 with your Department under Claim No.

11-4054. In 1977, I developed the spring for my use on my property.
Previous to that time the spring had not been put to beneficial use by the Bienz property owner since previous to 1960 to my knowledge.
I have developed the spring, all the water is being used for my purposes. He has not had excess on his land since previous to 1960.
The few years before 1977 the spring was nothing but a damp spot on the side of the hill. It didn't run more than a gallon every 10 minutes on the surface, if that. Enclosed please find a copy of the deed claiming that the right to the waters of Red Pine Canyon and Springs. This is recorded in Bear Lake County Courthouse. I realize that this is no right to water but it will establish my claim on this date.
