We moved our business from east of Jerome to south of Jerome in 1995; the original property was sold to a developer, and is in the process of being covered by the water system from Jerome. The business was completely removed from the original site. The new site is being divided between the father (Virgil L.) and the son (Virgil S.), with the father keeping two homes and three offices, and the son is keeping the RV-sales office and shop. One well serves all the buildings.
