At this time I have no unavailable dates for the end of March and April.

However I am in my Calving season during this time & I am alone so if a problem with Calving came up it could cause an Unavailable date - My Calving season is usually near finished by the last part of April. So as for me April 26, 05 would be a better date for me. But I will do my best to Attend the date you select.

Thank you
